CULTURE SHOCK IN UKRAINE - YouTube

As the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine shows, there are some deep cultural and political differences between the two countries, especially in their attitude towards the West. I am definitely not suggesting that they form one monolithic entity. Nevertheless, given their shared history, the long legacy of the Soviet Union and the fact that Kiev remains primarily a Russian-speaking city, I experienced similar cultural 'shocks' in all three cities I visited.

Culture Shock! Ukraine by Anne Meredith Dalton

My Weird Reverse Culture Shock After Ukraine. January 12, 2018. It's been a long time since I've chilled out in the US. In the last two years, I've only spent about a week back home. So when I packed up my life in Ukraine and prepared for my yearly pilgrimage for the holidays, I knew there'd be some reverse culture shock to deal with. I just wasn't prepared for what it would be. The ...
