For A Marian Church Marist

A Marian church stands at the foot of the cross. She does not take refuge in a fortress, or in a chapel, or in cautious silence, when others are being crushed. She is vulnerable, in her deeds as in her words. With humble courage, she stands with the most insignificant. A Marian church lets the winds of Pentecost come in, the winds that push outwards Church', 'Mary model of the Church', 'A Marian Church', 'Begin again a new Church'; only this last expression is really Colimian. Sometimes Marists roll several of these together, for example to say that our mission is 'to build a Marian Church'. Perhaps we need to unscramble them and look carefully at each. Finally I want to look again at what it means to be the Society of ...

a French Marist, Fr. Francois Marc, wrote a poetic plea that he entitled "Une Eglise Mariale," in English, "A Marian Church." Tragically, Fr. Francois died about ten years ago of cancer at the age of 46. For this talk I would simply like to read his poem. Fr. Francois Marc gives us a beautiful vision of what the Church could be. It is our calling as Marists

Craig Larkin in his Booklet Bearings, recalls a French Marist Fr Francois Marc who died of cancer at 47. He took his Marist vows in 1968 and lived through the turbulent years of hope and conflict that European society in general ...

Marian Church Archives - Marist Messenger

A Marian Church is a Church which makes a choice for compassion over competition; an option for relationship over dogmatism; for humility over power; for service over dominance. It is a Church which pushes its boundaries to include all, rather than one which defines its boundaries to contain the chosen. And it is a Church which includes the feminine in its attitudes, which can too easily become over-masculine.

A Marian Church - A Certain Way

I am a Marist priest and the Promoter for Marist Laity. This is the fifteenth in our series of talks on Marist spirituality. We are meditating on a poem by Marist Father François Marc entitled "A Marian Church." In this talk I would like to comment on the third stanza of the poem, which reads: A Marian church rejoices and sings.

A Marian Church: - Marist Laity

The Society of Mary, commonly known as simply the Marist Fathers, is an international Roman Catholic religious congregation, founded by Father Jean-Claude Colin and a group of other seminarians in Lyon, France, in 1816. The society's name derives from the Blessed Virgin Mary, whom the members attempt to imitate in their spirituality and daily work.

Society of Mary (Marists) - Wikipedia

The Marian Church lives in Nazareth in silence and simplicity. She does not live in a castle. Her home is like all the other homes. She goes out to chat with the other villagers. She weeps with them, she rejoices with them, but she never preaches to them. Above all she listens. The Marian Church stands at the foot of the Cross. She does not take refuge in a fortress or in a chapel or in prudent silence when people are being crushed. She is vulnerable in her deeds as in her words. With a ...

Marian Church - Society of Mary

Catholic Marian movements and societies have developed from the veneration of the Blessed Virgin Mary by members of the Catholic Church. These societies form part of the fabric of Mariology in the Catholic Church. Popular membership in Marian organizations grew significantly in the 20th century, as apparitions such as Our Lady of Fátima gave rise to societies with millions of members, and today ...

The Marist Brothers of the Schools, commonly known as simply the Marist Brothers, is an international community of Catholic Religious Institute of Brothers. In 1817, St. Marcellin Champagnat, a priest (Marist Father, SM) from France, founded the Marist Brothers, with the goal of educating young people, especially those most neglected. While most of the Brothers minister in school settings, others work with young people in parishes, religious retreats and spiritual accompaniment ...

The Marian church follows Mary into the mountains, going off with her to encounter life; she visits men and women, and though things may seem to be sterile, she is on the watch for what is coming to birth, for possibilities, for the life which beats in things. The Marian church rejoices and sings. Instead of bemoaning its fate and the world's woes, she is in wonder at the beauty there is on ...
