Krishnamurti As I Knew

He also question why in the case of this little boy Krishnamurti, brought up in the Theosophical society, who could not pass any examinations being rather dull by normal standards, he mind did not get conditioned like that of everybody else. Why is it that he kept that openness to perceive something new? When you pick up a young boy and bring him up to be the Dalai Lama, he becomes the Dalai Lama. So it would normal for him to have become a great Theosophist, the head of the Theosophical ...

Krishnamurti - Weeraperuma

In 1929 the world was presented with a new Messiah. His name was Krishnamurti. Born in India in 1895, educated in England and Europe, handsome, stylish and by all accounts charming, Krishnamurti had been proclaimed by the Theosophical Society to be the coming World Teacher. He was to follow in the footsteps of Lord Krishna and Jesus Christ.
