

Lead
Kindly
Light

By Cardinal
Newman

Lead kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on!
KeeP Thou my feet, I do not ask to see The distant scene,- one step enough for me.
I was not ever thus,
 nor prayed that Thou
 should'st lead me on,
I loved to choose and see my path, but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day, and spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will,
 remember not past years.
So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on,
Oer moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since,
 and lost awhile.

God would lead Newman on with kindly patience and grace, despite persecution from the Church of England and loss of many friends. He entered the Catholic Church on October 9th 1845, hence the date of his feast day. Newman described his conversion as his entrance into a safe harbor, fitting as the fruit of Newman's trust in God's kindly light. Not that this harbor was particularly tranquil. Newman was suspected by some in the Church and he would have to fight both legal and ecclesiastical ...

In some meditation notes many years later Newman wrote the following prayer: "O my God, let me never forget this truth—that not only art Thou my Life, but my only Life!

Thou art the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Thou art my Life, and the Life of all who live. All men, all I know, all I meet, all I see and hear of, live not unless they live by Thee. They live in Thee, or else they live not at all. No one can be saved out of Thee. Let me never forget this in the business of the day. O give ...
