Although there have been publications before concerning Latvian ethnographic mittens, the book "Mittens of Latvia. 178 Traditional Designs to Knit" provides the most complete and exact information. Moreover it is a visually magnificent book which tells us the story about Latvian traditional culture through bright and inspiring photos. The book is a perfectly designed trustworthy historical encyclopaedia. At the same time it is also a practical treatise encouraging knitters to carry on ...

Pattern description from Knitting in America: "The three pairs of Latvian mittens shown on page 152 are all based on a traditional mitten pattern from the Alsunga township in the Kurzeme district of Latvia. The large man's mittens (center) are knit at a very fine gauge (thirteen stitches to the inch) and include a liner. Thus, they are extraordinarily warm; Lizbeth made them for her photographer husband, who had challenged her to make mittens that would keep his hands toasty in Minnesota...
