Message From The People - Home | Facebook

By 1972's A MESSAGE FROM THE PEOPLE, he was turning out tracks full of funky soul, largely devoid of the overproduction plaguing much of his ABC discography. As was so often the case with Ray, a gospel feel mixed with R&B locomotion is the engine that drives things here, but he also uses it to transform Melanie's "What Have They Done to My Song, Ma" into a syncopated strut, and bring a Sunday Baptist church feel to the Dion hit "Abraham, Martin and John."

A Message from the People is more totally Ray Charles than any album he has ever recorded. The embryo of this album began to form in his mind more than 20 years ago. The flicker of an idea was nurtured. Soon it became a compulsion. But what record company would feel as deeply about this project as he? Only his own. This album is being re-released as part of the year long release program from Concord Music Group following their exclusive arrangement with the Ray Charles Foundation to develop ...
