Multi-carrier code-division multiple access (MC-CDMA) is a multiple access scheme used in OFDM-based telecommunication systems, allowing the system to support multiple users at the same time over same frequency band.. MC-CDMA spreads each user symbol in the frequency domain. That is, each user symbol is carried over multiple parallel subcarriers, but it is phase-shifted (typically 0 or 180 ...

In this paper, we propose a spread spectrum multi-carrier multiple-access (SS-MC-MA) waveform for high data rate UWB applications, taking into consideration the European UWB context. This new UWB scheme respects the parameters of the multiband orthogonal frequency division multiplexing (MB-OFDM) technique which is one of the candidates for wireless personal area networks (WPAN) standardization.
