A Beginner's Guide to Swinging - Sunday Woman

For starters, we all know what swingers are right? We've all heard the stories of couples who "swing" or who go to one of "those" parties where only other couples are invited. Swinging is kind of like polyamory, but more heteronormative and traditional, having existed since forever. These couples are not interested in disrupting their monogamy, they only want to have sex with other people with the approval of their "true" partner.
