The Merits of Motherhood. It's an impressive thing to command a boardroom of executives. But it's still far better to engage a bored room of toddlers. It's also much more needed. The proper raising of children (which involves both mothers and fathers) will solve more ailments of our time than any government program, school system or equal opportunity ever will. It will also bring more ...

It is not only our patriarchs and matriarchs, but, also our own grandfathers, Grandmothers, fathers, and mothers. Each generation should earn merits as a legacy for future generations. II. In The Torah and Tanach . Though we may be unfamiliar with Zechut Avot, it is actually a central tenet of Judaism. Though it may seem foreign to us, we can actually find it in three familiar sources. Zechut ...

our Matriarchs and our mothers bestow merit on us, their children and children's children. A Jewish woman in Persia after the destruction of the first Temple may need, and receive, the merit of her foremother, the first Jewish woman. All Jews today may call on the merit of their mothers and foremothers, be they Sarah Imenu, or our own individual mothers, living and dead. May it be God's ...
