The Osterman Weekend Alpha

This 1 hour 18 minute feature length documentary can be found on Anchor Bay's Commemorative 2-DVD set of the movie "The Osterman Weekend". It features interviews with pretty much every cast and crew member still living (barring Dennis Hopper for some unknown reason). Casting, pre-production, production, post are all covered here.

Osterman Weekend (112) ... Extras include a very illuminating doc called ALPHA OMEGA about the making of the film and interviews with the participants and his first preview cut. It is rough and easy to see by the opening sex sequence why everyone was horrified. Still, this is a better fitting end to his career than if it had ended five years earlier with CONVOY. For Peckinpah there is what is ...

In THE OSTERMAN WEEKEND, Peckinpah focuses Ludlum's cold war spy antics into a exploration of urban paranoia and governmental abuse. Video as a means to manipulate perception is one of the themes he exploits here, but that's not his main thrust. A group of affluent characters come together for a weekend that turns into a surreal nightmare.
