In his Rule, Saint Benedict promotes the idea that one's own happiness comes through making God and others the aim one's choices and actions. This Wisdom comes through the time-honoured practices of prayer, silence, study and work, which includes ones every day activities (constant conversion). The Rule's special genius is to teach that the road to perfect love and to eternal life begins in the everyday, at every moment and in every place. He treats the every day items as though they ...

The Wisdom of St Benedict - Wisdom Centre Romsey

So begins the ancient Rule of St. Benedict, written fifteen hundred years ago as a simple manual for monks living in community together. Because of its gentle wisdom, realism, and depth, the Rule has always stretched beyond the walls of monasteries. Today, growing numbers of men and women are discovering that it can teach them something invaluable about themselves and how to live meaningful lives.

I begin with words that St. Gregory the Great wrote about St. Benedict: "The man of God who shone on this earth among so many miracles was just as brilliant in the eloquent exposition of his teaching" (cf. Dialogues II, 36). The great Pope wrote these words in 592 A.D. The holy monk, who had died barely 50 years earlier, lived on in people's memories and especially in the flourishing religious Order he had founded.

On Saint Benedict ~ The Imaginative Conservative

Wisdom is what the Holy Spirit does in us so that we see all things with God's eyes. This is the gift of wisdom. 2. And this obviously stems from intimacy with God, from the intimate relationship that we have with God, from the relationship of children with the Father. When we have this relationship, the Holy Spirit gives us the gift of wisdom. When we are in communion with the Lord, it is as if the Holy Spirit transfigures our heart and makes it perceive all His warmth and predilection.
