This book is one half "english" and one half "spanish" Mexico's immense unfounded treasures begin with the hidden Mayan and Aztec treasures. Next came the 1810 to 1821 revolutionary period wherein father Miguel Hidalgo gathered the Indians, peons, the enslaved and the Mexicans to revolt against Spain's rule, an eleven year period where the Mexicans won their independence from Spain. During these eleven years of fighting, Spain was forced to recall its soldiers from the northerly ...

In 1933, Mexican millionaire Leon Trabuco began buying up tremendous amounts of his nation's gold reserve. He planned to sell this in the United States because he was convinced that the Great Depression would force the U.S. to devalue the dollar and gold prices there would soar. A pilot named Red Moiser allegedly made well over a dozen flights to a remote part of New Mexico, in the middle of ...
